

James Adelman

www.AdelmanArt.com

AdelmanArt@gmail.com

(973) 632-7869

James Adelman was born and raised in Montclair, NJ and received his BFA at the University of Massachusetts Amherst where he also detoured into accounting and small business administration in the Isenberg School of Management. He went on to attend the Cranbrook Academy of Art in Michigan before completing his MFA at the New York Academy of Art.

James's work has been exhibited in the US and abroad in venues such as Sotheby's, Mark Miller Gallery, Lyons Wier Gallery, Denise Bibro Gallery, the University of Shanghai, and Flowers Gallery where he recently gave an artist's talk. He has been the subject of two solo exhibitions at Gallery 51 and is the recipient of numerous awards, scholarships, and honors including receiving residency funding from the Pollock-Krasner Foundation on two occasions, the Salmagundi Club's President's Award, the Junius Allen Memorial Award, and the Posey Foundation's Fellowship for Graduate Study as well as several merit based academic scholarships. James has attended residencies which include the University of Shanghai and Central Academy of Fine Arts Beijing, the Vermont Studio Center, and the Woodstock Byrdcliffe Guild where he was recently invited to return.

He lives and maintains a studio practice in Brooklyn, NY.